Good morning,

Received settlement. We cannot express how happy we are that you accepted our case and saw it through to a satisfying conclusion that we had no hope for a few short months ago.

There needs to be more firms like yours fighting for the "underdogs" that this society has chosen to tilt every chance of justice against them.

Sometimes forcing a company to look in the mirror at just how ugly they are, if just for a moment of time, is a big win. They would never do it on their own. We threw and landed a punch, thanks to you guys.

We sincerely thank all of you.
